

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

Subscriptions: One year, $3; one month, 25 cts; single copy, 1 cent.
Members of the Publishers' Press.—The latest telegraphic news from all parts of the world are received by the Daily Times up to the hour of going to press.
Frank E. Langley, Publisher.

Published Every Weekday Afternoon.
Entered at the postoffice at Barre as second class matter.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1903.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

2,652

A Thousand A Day

more copies of the Times are printed and sold than of any competitor in Barre.

The Daily Times

is the only daily in Washington County that publishes its circulation so that all readers and advertisers may know what it is.

Do you have an advertisement in it?

The death rate of the world is estimated to be 68 every minute, while the birth rate is a little higher, there being 70 per minute. The figures are almost startling.

Kaiser William invited a squadron of United States battleships to Kiel, and of course when the ships arrived had to pay them an official visit. Knowing ones are now declaring that the Kaiser's invitation was a crafty move that he might see the inside of an American warship. If such was his idea we trust that he was not disappointed in his inside peek. But that idea appears to be rather far fetched and in fact, untrue. If Kaiser William wanted to know the inside of an American warship he has less bungling methods at his command.

Resting comfortably in the shade of Oyster Bay, President Cleveland may quietly contemplate today the battle of San Juan which occurred just five years ago. They have been five years full of eventfulness for the President of the nation who is able to review a political career that approaches the meteoric. From a "Rough Rider" at San Juan to the President's chair is a long jump, which could not have been possible for even Roosevelt, without the aid of accident. We are reminded in the contemplation of those five years how important a part the accidental plays in the world, after all.

The efficiency of the military training afforded in the neighboring military institution, Norwich University, at Northfield is brought out in the report of the special inspector, Capt. F. S. Foltz of the 2nd Cavalry, who says: "I consider that this little college, with its small numbers and resources, is giving an immense return to the government for the use of its Cadet Rifles and the services of Captain Hovey as professor, and gives evidence of a military pride and ambition that will repay cultivation." Incidentally there is a well deserved tribute to the ability of Capt. Hovey, the commanding officer.

The Burlington News confesses to a lack of love for the name "Green Mountain State" as applied to Vermont, but fails to give its reasons, unless it be that Vermont has "outgrown" the name. But why should Vermont wish to change the title of Green Mountain State? There is no more fitting name for the state, and, in fact, no more pleasant title, so far as we know. History has it that Samuel de Champlain attached the name to this section in his trip from the St. Lawrence River to the lake which bears his name, in 1609. As Champlain paddled his way into Lake Champlain and the grandeur of the hills burst upon his view, he involuntarily exclaimed at the greenness of the hills. Ever since, the name has clung to Vermont and appropriately so, it seems to us. Vermont's hills are eternal, and their greenness is the fondest memory of those who have gone out from the state, and to those who remain, it is one of the joys of life in the commonwealth. Then why change the name which carries with it so much of significance?

Woolen Goods.

The shrinking of woolen goods is caused by the felting quality of the woolen fibers, each of which is possessed of beard or slanting saw teeth, which favor forward movement, but forbid retreat.

A Sensitive Lover.

"I, A. B., declare my engagement to C. D., spinster, of this town to be at an end by reason of her pawing the engagement ring." Is from the personal column of a German newspaper.

Dogs as Mourners.

At the burial of a south London man his six dogs, draped in black, followed the cortege.

"Twas July 23, 1776, that the Declaration of Independence was adopted by the Continental Congress, but it was not made public till July 4."

Our Declaration of Independence in this business means we are under no obligations to buy from any one manufacturer. We buy where we can get the best goods on the best terms; and that means we can give you advantages that you cannot get from any store that is "under the influence" of a wholesale manufacturer.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Governor McCullough has appointed F. L. Allison, principal of the Bennington High School, county examiner of teachers in place of Charles L. Simmons, of Bennington, resigned.

Eugene Cowles, the famous opera singer, and Mrs. Cowles are at their home in Derby Line for the summer. They expect to entertain Mr. and Mrs. DeWolfe Hopper and other stage celebrities before the season is over.

The town of Colchester has filed a bill in chancery court asking that the Burlington Traction Co., be made to replace the tracks on the Winooski river bridge by removing its present track and constructing a new track nine inches easterly of the location of its present track.

The usual quiet of Friday was somewhat ruffled last Wednesday morning when it was learned that Miss Cynthia Adams and Fred Cota had eloped the previous night. Miss Adams, aged 14, is a step-daughter of Winooski, and is the son of Hon. S. J. Dana of this town, and Mr. Cota is well known in town. Nothing as yet is known of their whereabouts, although Judge Dana has made some efforts to find them.

A meeting of the subscribers to the fund raised for the purpose of securing a monument to be placed on the grave of the late Dr. James Conland, was held at Brattleboro Monday evening. It was reported that the contributions to the fund, which were limited to small amounts, aggregated $200, which is considered ample to carry out the suggestion made some time ago to have the monument consist of a rugged boulder. A committee was appointed consisting of W. H. Childs, O. L. French and J. G. Ullery, to whom the fund will be turned over, to be expended in their discretion.

A GREAT ENTERTAINMENT.

Foss & Sons Moving Pictures With Edison's Phonograph at Universalist Church.

At the Universalist church, Saturday evening, July 4, at 8 o'clock, will be presented the grandest and most exciting series of animated pictures ever seen upon canvas. Among the most interesting views to be presented will be The Life of an American Fireman. They show the world in this film the every movement of the brave firemen and their perfectly trained horses from the moment the men leap from their beds in response to an alarm until the fire is extinguished and a woman and child are rescued after many fierce battles with fire and smoke.

The first public demonstration to our late beloved President McKinley, and the last life motion picture taken of him the day before the assassination. Captain Graham, world champion swimmer, the great railway accident, Casey's experience with a steam roller. A great variety of scenes on different subjects, including cavalry charges, regimental reviews, and comic scenes. Also in addition to our grand new attractions we shall give some of the most wonderful scenes in the great Passion Play in connection with appropriate songs representing the best singers by Edison's latest perfected phonograph with the late wonderful recorded records.

Admission 25 cents, children under 12, 10 cents; children under 6 free when accompanied by parents.

To Rent Until Paid For.

We have about a hundred second-hand organs, including the Taber, Estey, Mason & Hamlin, Smith American, Shontager, Queen City, Bridgeport, Wilcox & White, Palace, Burdette, Packard and other makes which have been thoroughly overhauled and refinished and are as good as new and warranted for five years, at prices ranging from $10 to $50. Terms, $5 down and $2 per month. Our store is overcrowded and we must have room for new goods, and we have decided to dispose of them at extremely low prices. There is no excuse for your not having an organ now. Write for prices and styles today, sent free on application. McKannon Bros. & Co., 45 Church St., Burlington, Vt.

"Oh, it is good in only twelve states."

Take Your Chance.
Long time of trouble.
But, sinners, take yer chance!
Joy plays the fiddle,
An' sorrow's in the dance!
—Atlanta Constitution.

Nothing but Money.
He—Worth half a million, isn't he?
She—Yes; but otherwise he's worthless.—Puck.

Due to Environment.
Some folks are narrow minded cads
And thus excite our wrath.
'Twould seem all they were built for was
Who walk the "narrow path."
—Philadelphia Press.

What He Had.

Mr. Kindly—I hear poor Brother Littleton left all he had to the children's home. Did he have much?
Mrs. Sourly—Eight sons and three daughters!

A Diver's Dilemma.
A diver went down to patch a hole in the side of a vessel at Cardiff. He removed the plug, and the indraft of water was so great that it drew his arm in the hole, holding him in that position for two hours, until the assistance of another diver could be procured.

London Artists.
At Redcliffe Gardens, Kensington, London, there is a line of artists' studios a quarter of a mile in length, all under one roof.

Celebratin' the Fourth.
When the cat is still a-prowl!
Round the corner of the fence,
While the dogs lie still a-howlin'
'Tis for lack of better sense,
While yer granpa's still a-sleepin'
An' yer hear yer daddy snore,
That's the time to go a-croakin',
Like a mouse across the floor,
Till you find yerself a-peepin'
At the clock to see 't it's four.
When the baby's quit its cryin'
An' yer mammy's gone to sleep,
That's the time to be a-tryin'
How a boy the Fourth can keep.

Jump into yer pants an' jacket,
Go out barefoot in the dark,
For it's time to raise a racket,
An' it's time to have a lark.
Take yer cannons, crackers, rockets,
Pistol, drum an' other toys,
Put some matches in yer pockets,
For it's time to make a noise.
Tish it no one's near to blunder,
Strike a light an' start the fun,
Jes' beneath yer daddy's window,
Keepin' ready fer to run,
Thund'rin' blues, what a bustle!
Guess you'd better stop awhile.
Such a hot cracker must
Wake the people for a mile.

Hush! Somebody's speakin'! "Sonny,
Did you hear the breakfast bell?
Signs to me it's very funny
That you like your best so well."
Hang it all! I've been a-sleepin',
Oh folks up ahead of me,
While I dreamed I'd been a-sleepin'.
Fourth July since hap-pus three.

SIRENS AND SONS.

John W. Gates has ordered a steam yacht to draw only thirty inches of water and make seventeen miles an hour.

Major Elijah Halford, paymaster United States army, former secretary to President Harrison, has returned from a four year station in the Philippines.

Congressman Francis W. Cushman of Washington, who is a candidate for the United States senate, is called "the Abe Lincoln of the far west."

Edgar Wallace Conable of Colorado Springs, Colo., has purchased 8,000 acres of timber land in Benton county, Ark., where he will found a vegetarian colony.

Brigadier General William H. Carter of the war college board will not go to the Philippines this summer, but will remain on duty in Washington as a member of the general staff until that body is in working order.

Colonel J. E. Thayer of South Lancaster, Mass., has one of the finest collections in the country of native American birds, mounted in pairs, with their eggs, and is about to build a $30,000 museum for their storage.

General Andrew Hickenlooper, long prominent in the political and business life of Cincinnati, has resigned the presidency of the gas company and will hereafter live in retirement. Failing health, due to old age, is the reason assigned.

Major J. E. Burke, the blacksmith who was recently declared mayor of Burlington by the Vermont supreme court upon a recount of ballots, began his reform administration by discharging the chief of police and assuming charge himself.

Gabriel Dumont, who was Louis Riel's right hand man in the rebellion in northwest Canada eighteen years ago, has returned to the territory from this country, where he has been living since his chief was executed after the suppression of the trouble.

Mr. William Redmond, M. P., loves to tell how he once refused a crown. It was during his youth, when traveling for sport in Africa. He fell into the hands of King Ja Ja, who took such a fancy to him that he offered to make him his prime minister and heir apparent.

Rice and Cheese.

Rice may be cooked with cheese, making a dish equal to macaroni. Boil and drain the rice and place it in a buttered baking dish in alternate layers with grated cheese. Sprinkle the top thickly with bread crumbs, dot with butter, moisten with milk and bake in a quick oven.

Stimulating Marriage.

Hampton-on-Thames is holding out special inducements to young workmen who want to marry and settle down, says the London Chronicle. The urban district council has lately acquired an estate at Rosehill, upon which it is building workmen's dwellings. But what is home without a wife? So Prebendary Bam, the vicar, in laying the foundation stone, made a sporting offer in the interests of the population of the district. He offered to marry any couple free of charge who within the next twelve months would take one of the new houses and settle in it.
